APPORTIONMENT OF ROAD FUNDS MADE

Commissioners Plan Making
El Paso a Center of Road
Building Activity.

Plans for the expenditure of $350,000 the amount of road bonds recently voted, towards the construction of a perfect road system for the county, were discussed at the meeting Wednesday afternoon of the county commissioners court, participated in with equal enthusiasm both on the part of the county commissioners and the road building enthusiasts. What enthusiasm was lacking when the proposition was put to a vote was made up for at the road meeting. The sum of $397,000 was apportioned for road work by the commissioners, after the discussion.

As outlined, the building of the proposed roads will open up thousands of fertile acres hitherto undeveloped for the reason that they were inaccessible. Also numbers of farmers are to be afforded byways by which they can transport their products to the markets, without being compelled to journey many miles out of the way. Trade worth thousands of dollars to El Paso and which has been diverted on account of the impassable condition of the roads, it was said will again be turned to El Paso, and El Paso and its business men will derive the benefit of it.

Huaco tanks, which are declared to be the "booby spot" of this section, is to be made the picnic grounds of El Paso. On account of the present condition of the road in order to reach El Paso and which is going elsewhere, will be brought here by putting that highway in first class condition, so that the reconstruction of the Huaco tanks road will result in a good business investment, it was argued, and not only a speedway for automobiles, but also a road for the reconstruction of the road was made. It was also stated that the cost of putting that road in excellent condition would not exceed $2500.

That the citizens were anxious to secure the roads was evidenced by a number residing in different sections of the county promising to secure the rights of way and do the light grading work. The county is to do the filling and the heavy grading.

Leop Will Open up 12,000 Acres.

The building of the proposed road running from Camutillo bridge through the valley and back to Montoya, which is also to be a link in the borderland route, it is stated, would serve to open up 12,000 acres of fertile valley lands. Dr. Noel Longmire, one of the committee appointed by the court to look into the question in that vicinity, reported that the route needed repairing and resurfacing. The cross roads, he stated, should be resurfaced with gravel if possible. The bridges at Montoya and Vinton, Mr. Longmire said, should be built as soon as possible. The land lying on the west side of La Tuna, he reported, is jeopardized and in danger of being destroyed by the circuitous meanderings of the river. He advised the commissioners court to appoint a special committee for the purpose of obtaining from the land owners at Vinton and Camutillo permission to divert the course of the river "the digging of a channel."

Toma Ana county, N. M., Mr. Longmire stated, is going to build a highway to Anthony, which is on the El Paso county line, and he advocated this county building a similar roadway to connect the two states.

Only in one instance was there a conflict, and that was relative to the road running north from Ysleta. Postmaster J. A. Smith and Tom Powers, who were on that committee, reported on a road running direct from that point, but others submitted a proposition for road, when leaving Ysleta to follow the old foot hills in that section. The commissioners decided to go over the ground before definitely deciding on the course the road should take.

The Fabens to Fort Hancock Road. From Fabens to Fort Hancock the proposed road will encounter the island road and follow the old T. P. grade, going into Fort Hancock. C. M. Newman and C. H. Leavelle reported on this road. The sum of $80,000 was asked for its construction.

From Fort Hancock to Sierra Blanca, a route will lead from the former place to Finlay, and from the latter place a draw will be followed, keeping along the T. P. grade, finally crossing to the mesa. County surveyor J. W. Eubank submitted the report on this road. He stated that in some sections very little work would be required to make a first class road. On the mesa, the surveyor stated, that only the grease weed and underbrush would have to be dragged. From Sierra Blanca on, it proposed to build the road on the south side of the T. P. tracks, so that it will be protected from the rain water washing down from the hills. The only real work required to make this a first class road, it was stated, would be below old Alamogordo.

J. G. Schaefer reported on a cross road branching off from the county road between San Elizario and Cuadrilla and connecting with another county road in that section.

In addition to discussing the building of roads the county commissioners heard from those who had roads they wanted to repair.

Set Aside $297,000 for Roads.

Following the meeting, the commissioners set aside $297,000 for the building and repairing of the different roads. The amounts appropriated were as follows:
North Valley road, El Paso to Fabens, $100,000.
Island roads, $15,000. There will be two of these roads. One will run the length of the island and the other will cross it.
Fabens to Fort Hancock, $55,000.
Upper valley road, $40,000.
Resurfacing present road from El Paso to Fabens, $15,000.
Finlay to Sierra Blanca, $10,000.
San Elizario-Socorro road, $50,000.
Huaco Tanks road, $20,000.
For various cross roads, $10,000.

It was decided that the county could build the roads much cheaper than by letting it out to contractors.

CLINT FORMS CLUB

TO WORK FOR TOWN

Will Try to Secure County High School, Interurban Line and Government Experiment Station.

Clint, Texas, Feb. 6.—For the purpose of securing a county high school and for boosting the Clint district in general, the Commercial club of Clint organized here last night. Thirty enthusiastic residents of Clint, including some from nearby ranches, attended the meeting, which elected Dr. E. E. Brown, president, and W. R. Elliott, secretary-treasurer.

Miss Mary Winkler, county superintendent, in addressing the club, outlined the work of a county high school and stated she considered the prospects were good for the location of a school at Clint to care for the adjoining school districts. The various districts will be bonded for the necessary funds, the county high school to have, in addition to the regular high school courses, departments of agriculture and domestic science. Dr. E. Brown is chairman of a committee of five to get work started in the district to secure the high school.

Clint also wants the interurban line, which will be constructed to Ysleta, extended down the valley, with a view, E. B. Biddle, C. E. Kellogg and K. N. Bowington were appointed to confer with officials of the Electric Railway company.

An effort will be made to have a government experiment station located in the Clint district. Edgar E. Brown, N. Garcia and C. M. Kinney were named as a committee to work for such station for the benefit of the entire district.

Committees on bylaws and membership were also named, and they will report next Wednesday night. A vigorous campaign for members is planned and the club will meet once a week until the proposed improvements are secured.

WOMAN'S CLUB HAS INTERESTING SESSION; POPULAR EMPLOYEES DANCE

The Woman's club held its "club day" meeting on Wednesday afternoon in the assembly hall of the Paso del Norte hotel. Mrs. Averill, the president, opened the meeting. The minutes of the previous meeting were read by the recording secretary, Mrs. W. S. Valentine, and approved. Reports of the treasurer and various committees were approved. A communication from Jane Adams on "Labor Legislation" was read by the corresponding secretary, Mrs. Flora McAfee Jones. Mrs. Averill spoke of the inspiration the visit of Mrs. Percy V. Pennybacker, national president of federated clubs, and Mrs. Emmons, president of the committee on national conservation, has been to El Paso club women.

Mrs. A. W. Foster, chairman of social affairs, announced the club birthday luncheon to be given on March 5 in the club rooms of the Paso del Norte. The luncheon will be confined to club members and their house guests, and other federated members.

Mrs. J. E. Townsend gave the general federation notes and spoke of the philanthropic work being done by different clubs in furnishing cots in hospitals for sick children and also sending clothing to the country for fresh air.

Mrs. Holl Hale gave the state federation notes and spoke of the women's clubs in Texas that owned their own club homes—San Antonio, Dallas, Beaumont, Fort Arthur and Houston.

Mrs. E. Kohlberg gave a farewell message of love and appreciation from Mrs. Pennybacker and Mrs. Crocker, who greatly appreciated the warm reception they received from the El Paso club members. The program then followed. It was "Young Women's Day" and was in charge of Mrs. H. T. Bowie and was one of exceptional merit.

Miss Henrietta Buckler discussed "What College Means to Women" and gave a delightful glimpse of college life and said: "College training develops personality and unselfishness. It teaches young women how to meet responsibilities in life."

Mrs. H. T. Bowie spoke of work done by college girls in the Consumers Students' league. She said it made "young women return to their home towns to take an active part in civic work."

Miss Lucile Daniel sang sweetly "A Lullaby," accompanied on the piano by Mrs. W. R. Brown.

Miss Madeline Marshall read an interesting paper on the vocational opportunities of young women.

Miss Marshall said the old time work "home duty" has been stolen away from women by modern civilization—steam and electricity—and women feels the need of a vocation, entering the business and professional field.

Miss Elsie Kohlberg read an excellent paper on "Girls in Industrial Life" and spoke of the great industrial problem which confronts all club women and social service workers. She said that "women are making great efforts for the betterment of conditions of laboring girls' lives."

Miss Florence Comfort charmingly sang "Fleeting Days," accompanied by Mrs. Solon Comfort.

At the close of the program, Mrs. W. R. Brown presented Mrs. Bowie with a beautiful bouquet of white carnations, a gift of appreciation from the Young Women's Christian association, of which Mrs. Bowie is president.

The meeting then adjourned and directly after the directors met and the courtesies of the club were extended to Mrs. Gertrude O. Leubetter.

The annual meeting of the Y. W. C. A. will be held Friday evening in the central rooms at 7:45 p. m. in the Calhoun building. The Y. W. C. A. takes this opportunity once again to show the public just what is being done. A most attractive program has been prepared representing the different departments by class exercises, tableaux, etc.

Business meeting and election of officers. Greetings from El Paso and Y. W. C. A. Reports of departmental chairmen—Gymnasium, Mrs. F. Hermann; membership, Mrs. J. A. Potter; Junior, Miss Bertha Miller; lunch room, Mrs. C. A. Thum; travelers aid, Mrs. F. M. Barger; religious work, Mrs. Howard Durfee; finance, Miss Flora Jones; board of health, Mrs. J. Woodside; social, Mrs. William Hogarth; vocal solo, Miss Bertha Stanhope. Address, Miss Mabel K. York.

At the close of the program refreshments will be served.

The "Tuesday afternoon Sewing club" was delightfully entertained this week by Mrs. J. P. Eyster. The hostess took the guests to the Crawford theater to see the matinee and later they enjoyed 5 o'clock "tea" at the Hotel Paso del Norte. Those who enjoyed Mrs. Eyster's ever so delicious menu were C. M. Hendricks, George L. Kessler, J. J. Kaster, George Brunner, J. S. Thompson, Will T. Owen, G. A. Bush and Miss May Lafferty.

The missionary union is being held this afternoon at Trinity Methodist church.

Friday afternoon Parent-Teachers' association of the Mesa school will have a meeting.

There will be a meeting of the sewing society of Temple Mt. Sinai on Monday afternoon, Feb. 10, in the vestry room of the church.

Miss Myra Pierson will entertain the What-so-ever club on Saturday afternoon.

The Popular is more than a name—it is a spirit. This spirit was exemplified at a dancing party given by Mr. and Mrs. A. Schwartz at the Elks' club Wednesday night in honor of the executive staff and employees of the Popular store.

Mr. and Mrs. Schwartz were present to welcome their guests and entered into the spirit of the occasion during the evening. They led the grand march, made a special effort to have everyone else and participated in the full dance program. There were no couples present at the dance, including the entire selling and executive force of the big department store, which was like a large family party. The ballroom of the club was decorated in polka-dot and red and white carnations. Bouquets of red carnations were distributed as favors by Mr. and Mrs. Schwartz's son and daughter, Manuel and Ruth.

Punch was served during the dancing and ice cream and cake during the intermission. At this time messages were read from Maurice Schwartz and T. Weiss, the eastern buyers, who wired their best wishes to the party, from New York.

The "Ideal" club will give a dance next Monday night at the Knights of Columbus hall on Myrtle avenue. This is a club of young Mexicans of the city.

The high school gave an entertainment Tuesday. It consisted of moving pictures and dancing.

El Pasoans Away

Charlie Stevens has been to Phoenix, doing the Arizona legislature, the Roosevelt dam trip and the other sights of the state capital. Mr. Stevens has been to his Nogales ranch and went from there to Phoenix with a friend, who is a member of the legislature. He went to the Roosevelt dam over the famous scenic highway Wednesday and is expected home this evening.

Miss Marion Young, who has been visiting in Austin, Tex., for the past two weeks, had many delightful entertainments given in her honor. She is now in New Orleans, La., visiting her aunt, Mrs. Horace L. Pitcher, and enjoying the Mardi Gras carnival.

United States senator A. B. Fall and daughter, Mrs. M. T. Everhart and Miss Jonett Fall, will leave on Saturday for Washington, D. C., where they will remain the balance of the winter. Mrs. Fall and daughter will entertain with an "at home" on Friday afternoon from 3 to 6.

Ellis G. Krupp has gone east for a business and pleasure trip combined.

Cards

Mrs. William H. F. Judd is entertaining this afternoon with a bridge luncheon party at her home, 301 Upton avenue.

Mrs. J. D. Hughes was hostess of the Wednesday Bridge club on Wednesday afternoon. There were two tables of non-members present, and after the game, tempting refreshments were served in two courses. Prizes were won by Mesdames J. W. Pettus, Fred Woodworth, C. H. Finley and L. H. Tucker. Mrs. K. D. Franklin will be the next hostess of the club.

The Eureka Bridge club met with Mrs. A. E. Ryan on Tuesday afternoon of this week. Mrs. D. W. Dennis and Mrs. E. Steenbergen were the only non-members present. After the game, a two-course luncheon was served. Mrs. R. W. Knoblauch will be the next hostess of the club, on Tuesday afternoon, at her home, 701 North Florence street.

Church Affairs

The women of the missionary society of Trinity Methodist church were greatly encouraged by the very excellent reports given at the regular business session Tuesday afternoon. Miss Alice Carre, the president, presided.

After the opening song, Mrs. George Oliver read the scripture lesson, Mark 14:1-25. Mrs. L. J. Ayers led in prayer. Reports from the various departments were very encouraging. The young people are thoroughly alive and, through the mission study class, "The Dorcas society and the Hienietta society, are doing real missionary work."

The fourth vice president, Mrs. S. S. Birchfield reported an advance along all lines, this department including social service, visiting sick and strangers, cottage prayer meetings and paragoness finances. Mrs. L. Trotter reported four new subscribers to the Voice. One new member, Mrs. J. V. Brown, was received.

An invitation from Mrs. William Hogarth for the social meeting of the month was accepted. Mrs. Empress Arlington, conference president, reported that Miss Daley Davies, field secretary, would visit El Paso during March. Mrs. C. T. Race and Mrs. J. P. Robertson were hostesses for the afternoon. Mrs. Arnold, T. O'Brien presided at the organ. The meeting closed with a prayer by Mrs. C. Wesley Webb.

Out Of Town Visitors

Samuel Hockstra and son, and brother, Elias Hockstra, of Kalamazoo, Mich., are visiting in El Paso. They are making this their last visit here. The late Samuel Hockstra has extensive real estate interests in Kalamazoo, and his brother is president of the well known grocers of that city. They will leave Friday for Los Angeles and San Francisco.

Dr. and Mrs. William Rogers have arrived in El Paso from Muncie, Texas, and will make this city their home.

C. F. Sloan has returned to Torreon, Mexico, and will prepare his home for Mrs. Sloan and children, who will leave soon for the city.

Miss Louise Cunningham, of Las Vegas, N. M., will arrive on Thursday morning for a visit of several weeks with her sister, Mrs. John H. Clary.

Dinners and Luncheons

Wednesday afternoon Miss Jonett Fall entertained with a beautiful luncheon at her home in Golden Hill. The table was decorated with a large bowl holding pink and white roses. Candabras with green shades were very attractive. The place cards were dainty with the monogram of the hostess. Six delicious courses were served to the guests, who were: Mrs. J. E. Everhart, Misses Wanda Race, Anne Lee Galties, Hienietta Buckler, Mrs. Moran, Elsie Wale, Ethel Wale, Olive Davis, Clara Yancey, Florence Yancey and Maud Austin.
